EARLY NEWS FROM THE WAR FRONTS

Desperate Resistance By Ethiopians

Addis Ababa, Oct. 5.

Adowa which was reported captured by the Italians on Saturday morning is still in the hands of the Abyssinians according to the latest reports. Whether the Italians failed in the attempt to storm the town or were partially successful, and then were driven out again by the Abyssinian forces is not quite clear at the present juncture.

There is no doubt that a desperate battle is going on for the possession of the city and it is questionable how the Abyssinians, though fighting with conspicuous bravery, will be able to resist the Italian onslaught supported by artillery, tanks and other modern weapons, much longer.

The Italian forces advancing from the North against Adowa on a front of 65 kilometres are said to amount to 100,000 men and apparently have been taken by surprise by the strength of the resistance of the Abyssinians which was not expected at this stage.

Heavy losses evidently have been suffered on both sides, unconfirmed reports putting them as high as 1,200 to 2,000. The report of the capture adjacent town of Adigrat is unconfirmed, the latest reports from the front stating that the Italians only reached Havrat, which is one day's march from Adigrat, and where the Abyssinian, despite continual bomb attacks by Italian planes, are still holding the Italian forces at bay.

Westward of Adowa, the Italian vanguard is reported to have gained about seven kilometres in the course of the day, and seem likely that the town of Axum will soon be in their hands, if this has not already occurred.

IN THE SOUTH

In the South the Italian Army which invaded the province of Ogaden from Italian Somaliland with the object of reaching Harar and join up with the Eastern Army advancing from the mountain of Moussa Ali, near the frontier of French Somaliland, is also meeting with considerable resistance.

The objective of both these armies is the Addis Ababa-Jibuti railway line, which will thus cut off the capital from supplies from the coast.

ADOWA SURROUNDED

Rome, Oct. 5.

The fate of Adowa according to the latest dispatches is still undecided, the Abyssinian troops under Ras Seyum have suffered severe losses. Adowa is now almost completely surrounded by Italian troops so that the Abyssinian position is becoming more and more critical. Ras Seyum appears therefore to be making plans to evacuate.

Extensive preparations have been made here to celebrate with great festivities the fall of Adowa, news of which is awaited with tense expectation.

POSITION AT ADDIS ABABA

Addis Ababa, Oct. 5.

The despatch of telegrams to Rome by a transmitter belonging to the Italian Legation is forbidden by the Abyssinian Government, only the receipt of messages from Rome being permitted. Somewhat greater freedom of movement of the Legation staff has been permitted, members of the Legation being allowed to leave the building, but only when accompanied by two men of the Imperial Guard, so that on such occasions Italian officials appear as semi-prisoners.

Uneasiness was occasioned by the reduced food supplies reaching the capital, since for the past two days many peasants were scared by rumours that Addis Ababa would be bombed, so failed to appear at the market as usual.

Many women and children are leaving the city. Italian aircraft have been showering leaflets in Amharish language in various parts of the country calling on the peasants to place themselves under the protection of the Italian flag and warning them that according to well-known prophecies the Italian Government's enterprises will be victorious and those who oppose will be annihilated.

REMARKABLE CLAIM

Addis Ababa, Oct. 4.

A remarkable claim of an Ethiopian advance into Eritrea has been made here and appears to be supported by facts. It is stated that while Ras Seyum's troops were resisting the Italian Army at Adowa, Ras Ayenu was advancing rapidly northward and to the west of Adowa, in the direction of Agordat, with 12,000 men.

The advance guards of his regiments are reported to have crossed the Eritrean frontier and captured some Italian outposts.

Some Eritrean native forces and some Somalis are said to have deserted to the Ethiopians.

It is also claimed that an Italian plane was shot down at Addis Ababa.

Meanwhile the Italian armies are crushing the Ethiopian defenders back by air bombardment and incessant artillery attack. They have captured Adigrat and Adowa.

The advance is proceeding almost exactly along the lines anticipated. A military attaché says he expects the advance from Somaliland with Harar as the objective will be accompanied by the entry into Ethiopia from the north of another powerful army.

TROOPS MASSED

Authorities report that 30,000 troops are massed close to the Somaliland border, on the south, and will advance into the province of Aussa supported by squadrons of bombers, which are stationed at Assab. Their objective will be to cut the railway.

The air squadrons will be employed in blowing up the railway bridge in the hills around Awash and the shoulders of the valley of the River Awash so as to virtually eliminate the possibility of internal railway transport of men and materials.

The entry of supplies from the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan frontiers is vastly more difficult than from the British or French Somaliland borders.

"SCOOTER" TANKS

Owing to the nature of the terrain, military observers expect the Italians to extensively employ their tiny "scooter" tanks, vehicles carrying two machine-guns and capable of darting about with a mobility which makes them an implement of maximum utility and renders them most difficult targets for artillery. Indeed, the antiquated condition of this arm amongst the Ethiopian forces makes these light tanks almost immune from danger.

They are manned by a driver and gunner only and can operate at speed on an incline of 45 degrees. It is estimated that there are about 500 of these "scooter" tanks in East Africa.

SUB-COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Geneva, Oct. 4.

The sub-committee of five, consisting of representatives of Britain, France, Spain, Portugal and Rumania, has completed its draft report on the juridical aspect of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute—namely, the conclusions to be drawn from the facts set forth in the historical report, which will be considered by a full meeting of the Committee of Thirteen, which it being held at 8 p.m. This meeting is expected to last until after midnight.

The two reports will be considered by a meeting of the League Council provisionally fixed for tomorrow afternoon.

A secret meeting of the League Council will be followed by a public meeting tomorrow afternoon, at which Baron Aloisi, the chief Italian delegate, is expected to make an important statement.

SECRET MEETING

The secret meeting will be faced with an important decision as to whether the procedure under Article XV is no longer applicable because a state of war already exists. As, however, the information before the Council is still very conflicting, it is probable that a brief series of recommendations will be adopted for submission to the public session.

It is likely that the Council will recommend the convocation of the Assembly which may meet on October 9.

SETBACK AT ADOWA

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Addis Ababa, Oct. 4.

The Italian advance on Adowa has been brought to a temporary standstill by the stubborn resistance put up by the Abyssinian troops, according to the latest reports received here. Desperate fighting is going on for the possession of Adigrat in the district of Agame, this town forming the key position for the capture of Adowa. The Abyssinians established themselves in small groups in the mountains and are conducting a guerrilla warfare which is proving a great obstacle to the Italians. The command, therefore, has been given to the troops to move forward with the greatest caution. The Italians have already lost much material and many men as prisoners, according to the Abyssinian reports which add that the Italians are apparently trying to effect a break in their lines in Adowa and Axum with tanks and airplanes in order to encircle Adowa from the flank. It is added that they have already taken the villages of Malbria and Bergrament, south of the thirty kilometre zone.

Adowa is being subjected to continual bombardment and the commander of the Northern Army, Ras Seyum, has telegraphed Negus that he would not be able to hold the town much longer, while heavy losses on both sides have been reported in the course of fighting in this sector.

EASTERN FRONT

On the eastern front fifty thousand Abyssinian troops are said to be opposing the Italian attack in the vicinity of the mountain, Mussall, the Emperor, it is stated, having given the order that this line must be held, cost what it may, as the Italian offensive in this sector is obviously directed against the railway line from Djibouti to the capital.

Anxiety prevails in Addis Ababa owing to the possibility of an air raid though it is not anticipated that any will take place until the Italian Minister, who did not leave the capital on Friday, has actually departed. According to some reports he is waiting for the arrival of the various consuls from the interior, though he is reported to have said that he has not yet received his passport and it is rumoured that the Abyssinian government are detaining him as hostage or at least as a deterrent to air attacks.

ABYSSINIA'S REPLY TO GENEVA

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Geneva, Oct. 4.

Acknowledging receipt of the communication informing him of the Italian Government's telegram to the League of Nations on Thursday announcing the opening of hostilities, the Abyssinian Foreign Minister, Heruy, telegraphed his reply on Friday stating that the Abyssinian Government noted that Italy assumed the responsibility for the invasion of the province of Agame and the bombardment of the unfortunate towns which, led to the slaughter of women and children as well as the destruction of a hospital with a visible red cross sign.

The Abyssinian Government further noted that this action is action represented as being a necessary measure of defence and that "our gesture of withdrawing troops thirty kilometres behind the frontier was construed as a strategic menace."

Despite the repeated applications by the Abyssinians since December 1934 for arbitration and a peaceful settlement, the Italians which had already begun with the transport of troops and munitions since August only intensified the warlike procedure during the whole course of the proceedings before the League of Nations declined all proposals for a peaceful settlement and have now begun to carry out openly, her threats of conquering Abyssinia.

Notwithstanding the plain and brutal Italian aggression which compelled the Abyssinian army to defend the territories concerned, the Abyssinian government declares its firm determination to co-operate with the League of Nations to the fullest extent within the framework of the League Covenant.

MEMEL GERMAN INDIGNANT

Irregularity In Ballot

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Public indignation ran high among the German population when it became known on Friday that the deliberate falsification of court voting papers by one of the Lithuanian scrutineers proved beyond all possibility of doubt. As is generally known, scrutineers work in pairs, the second checking count of the first. Moreover the public permitted the witness to count from the gallery.

On Thursday three persons watching from the gallery noticed that the scrutineer nearest them, again and again slip some ballot papers representing votes for the united German candidates. The irregularity was instantly reported to the officer of the election commission, who called on the Lithuanian scrutineer to retire, pending investigation. This he refused to do, declaring that only the chairman of the election commission was authorised to give such an order. When the Chairman arrived the contents of the drawer were examined, when it was discovered to consist of 54 voting papers on the German list and two Lithuanian which evidently were put there by mistake in a hurry.

The scrutineer at first denied guilt but was nevertheless arrested and handed over to the criminal police. On Friday he made a full confession. The scrutineer is a Lithuanian student named Prapletis belonging to the Memel High School, and is 23 years of age.

Altogether 50 students of the Lithuanian High School of Memel were entrusted with the responsible work of counting the votes against the repeated objection of the German election committee protested emphatically to the district election commission about the forgery. In a written statement handed in, the German committee recalled its frequent objections to the employment of students, and also that not only the guilty scrutineer but his partner would be expelled from the counting room, the latter action, seeming to suggest that the committee was disposed to hamper with supervision work of the scrutineers, by Friday midday 30,000 out of a total of 68,000 were examined as to their validity, and 600 being declared null and void.

ROME'S AIR DEFENCES

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Rome, Oct. 4. Rome's air defences are now being reinforced with feverish speed. Anti-aircraft guns have been put in position on the hills surrounding the city, where the number of search lights are also being increased. All public services, corporations and other institutions possessing large buildings, are pushing ahead with the construction of bomb-proof cellars with the greatest possible urgency.

Hitherto defensive measures have been the weakest link in Italy's air arm which chiefly planned for offensive purposes.

SCOTLAND DRAW WITH WALES

International Tie

Cardiff, Oct. 5.

A crowd of 40,000 attended the first international soccer match of the season when Wales and Scotland shared the honours with each side scoring one goal.

Scotland won the toss and Wales, faced a dazzling sun. The Scots were clever in their short passing and were much the better team in their approach work, the inside trio proving a delightful combination. Walker and Mills audaciously weaving their way through the Welsh defence, and Armstrong caused the Scots' supporters to go into ecstasies over his numerous zigzag runs.

Duncan opened the scoring for Scotland in the 34th minute, but Phillips equalised seven minutes later when he kicked the ball out of the goalkeeper's hands into the net, and the interval arrived with the two teams on level terms.

SECOND HALF SCORELESS

On the resumption Wales attacked hotly and, in the face of clever scheming by Leslie Jones, the Scottish defence was clearly shaky, but Glover spoiled many openings by being either very slow or lacking in positional fitness.

In contrast to their tactics in the opening half, the Scots indulged in long passing which proved very dangerous, once being effected while he was lying full length on the ground.

Physicians emphasize:

"Take Kalzana to conquer Weakness"

"Whenever there is evidence of disfunction in the body, lack of minerals is probably a contributing factor," writes Dr. H. F. W. B., London

"After a course of Kalzana the general condition improved, tiredness disappeared, the patient became more cheerful and the entire organism got strengthened and rejuvenated," writes Dr. Cl. B.

KALZANA
the discovery of Prof. LOEW

MINERALS play a very important role in the body, for a shortage of these minerals is always followed by weakness and ill-health.

Any single organ may be first to suffer. In some people it will be the teeth which show up the existing mineral deficiency. Others will lose their power of resistance to colds and diseases. In women—irregularities of the functions is mostly due to the same cause: lack of vital minerals. Physicians now advise "take Kalzana tablets because they conquer the mineral deficiency." Kalzana brings exactly those vital elements into the body, the lack of which causes so many complaints. Kalzana was made to infuse these elements into the body, it is the outcome of patient research by that famous scientist Prof. Loew.

Follow the advice of Prof. Loew and thousands of physicians, and make Kalzana a daily addition to your diet. Then you will soon notice how much better and stronger you feel.

Kalzana

THE MINERAL FOOD FOR BETTER HEALTH

A few typical symptoms of mineral deficiency are:

General Weakness

Anæmia

Nervous Irritability

Skin Troubles

Tooth Decay

Low Resistance to Colds and Infections

Feminine Complaints

The opinion of leading Medical Papers:—

"The Tung-Chi Medical Paper" writes:

"The regular administration of Kalzana in sufficient doses maintains normal blood alkalinity, replaces excessive loss of calcium from the tissues, markedly relieves many of the distressing symptoms of disease and definitely assists the body to overcome the infection."

That is the explanation why Kalzana is prescribed on an ever increasing scale by medical practitioners, and it has been scientifically proven that physicians can rely upon Kalzana.

That well-known Medical Paper, "The Practitioner," writes:

"Kalzana acts efficiently in promoting the growth of strong bones and healthy teeth—in reducing blood pressure and stimulating the glands and blood-forming organs."

"Kalzana is indicated in the diet of expectant and nursing mothers, and of rapidly growing children and in all conditions where a mineral food is required, particularly because Kalzana promotes calcium retention."

"LAST OF THE VICEROYS"

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

Possibly the Earl of Willington, who greets a sixty-ninth anniversary to-day, will become known as the "Last of the Viceroys," for the Marquis of Linlithgow, in whose favour he demits office shortly, will take the post only to transform it into a Governor-Generalship for the new Federation of India. Lord Willington was formerly Mr. Freeman Freeman-Thomas, grandson of Lord Hampden, a former Speaker, and had a distinguished Parliamentary career before he became a pro-consul. His difficult term in India has added to his reputation as an ideal type of administrator.

PRINCE JUAN'S MARRIAGE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

Prince Charles of Bourbon-Sicily told me this evening that the marriage of his daughter, Princess Marie Mercedes, to Prince Juan, the youngest son of ex-King Alfonso, had been fixed for Oct. 12, say a London correspondent.

After attending the funeral of Queen Astrid in Brussels, ex-King Alfonso arrived in Paris accompanied by the Duke of of Luna. He will be joined by Prince Juan and Princess Maria Christina his younger daughter, so-morrow.

Prince Juan was born in 1913 and is the heir-presumptive to the throne of Spain, as both his elder brothers, the Prince of Asturias and Prince Jaime, have renounced their claims.

JAPANESE "FENTS" IN INDIA

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

At a meeting of the directors of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce on Monday the India executive announced that it had renewed its representations regarding the growing imports into India of so-called fents (cotton and rayon) of Japanese origin, and drew attention to the concern felt throughout the trade at the alarming rate of increase of such imports. Evidence had been collected which supported the view that the cloth which was entered as "fents"—thus escaping the cotton quota and paying less duty than piece goods when composed of rayon—was, in effect, perfect cloth cut into short lengths, not damaged pieces of irregular lengths. The import statistics showed that whereas in 1921 the volume of Japanese trade in fents and been recorded as 90,000 yards it had risen to the figure of 25,500,000 yards in 1934, and during the first six months of the current year to 20,250,000 yards.

The India executive added that it had submitted to the Board of Trade detailed recommendations which it is hoped will lead to the Government of India. The object in view is to check this state of affairs, but at the same time to ensure that no hardship shall be suffered by those engaged in trade in "bona-fide" fents.

GEORGE WHITE'S 1935
SCANDALS

Stardom burst upon platinum-blond Alice Faye, she of the doll-like complexion and sophisticated air who is one of the stars of "George White's 1935 Scandals," now at the King's Theatre.

It happened without premeditation. During the making of the first edition of the frolicsome "Scandals," of which the coming one is the follow-up, Miss Faye reached Hollywood to do a song and dance number.

One screen test convinced Fox Film studio executives that here was stellar timber.

Instantly Miss Faye was shoved up as leading lady, and was treading the heights.

The rest is screen history. Miss Faye's appeal registered distinctly in "Now I'll Tell You," Mrs. Arnold Rothstein, "She Learned About Sailors," and "365 Nights in Hollywood."

Now in the 1935 edition of the Scandals she shares honours with such stage and screen aces as James Dunn, Ned Sparks, Lyda Roberti, Cliff Edwards, Arline Judge, Eleanor Powell, Emma Dunn, Benny Rubin and George White.

In George White's 1935 Scandals, Miss Faye sings these songs hits, specially composed for the picture: "According to the Moonlight," "Hunkadoola," and "Oh I Didn't Know (You'd Get That Way)." They have become popular overnight wherever heard, as have "It's An Old Southern Custom," "I Got Shoes You Got Shoegies," and "I Was Born Too Late."

The melodies are the work of Jack Yellen, Joseph Meyer, and Cliff Friend, with additional lyrics by Herb Magidson, all four top-notch song writers of the day.

Jack Donohue, the dance director, who coached Miss Faye in her dances used in presenting these songs, says she "is one star who can take dance direction one and pluck up the step, without a second explanation."

The eyes and ears of the American screen populace are turned now on her latest appearance; it was in response to countless requests that this screen siren was elevated to stardom.

Miss Faye is young in years. She knew she could dance, but was unsure of her voice. A New York

THE INFORMER

The Irish character, many-sided and complicated by currents of idealism, passion, valor, pride, and gentle faith, has rarely been caught in literature has not even been caught in its entirety on the screen. Thus in making Liam O'Flaherty's "The Informer," RKO-Radio pioneered a new field in the face of the underworld, where, in the face of misunderstanding, green hope has always grown, Wednesday at the King's Theatre.

"The Informer" goes deep into the heart of the men of Ireland to find their elemental virtues with startling realism. It strengthens its drawing of the sturdy qualities of a people with the dramatic contrast of the spiritual decay of an Irish giant whose weakness was greater than his strength, but who was true at least, not only to himself but to the traditions of his race.

Gypo Moran, portrayed by Victor McLaglen in one of his most remarkable screen characterizations, is the primitive Irishman who, fighting, loving, and laughing, meets a doom of his own making in the whirlwind of the Irish revolution.

A universal figure is Gypo Moran, yet he is strongly marked as a son of Ireland. And thus he evidences all those elements which go to make men and women the world over: the flesh is heir to and the anodyne of faith which clothes those flesh while providing a vivid portrait of a man caught in the net of his own passions.

Supporting Victor McLaglen in this saga of Ireland's days of strife is a cast that includes Margo Grahame, Heather Angel, Preston Foster, Wallace Ford and Una O'Connor.

"The Informer" is a John Ford production.

atorney, Hyman Bushel, made her sing for recording on a twenty-five cent phonograph home record, and before she could utter the first syllable of Jack Robinson, she was on her triumphal path to fame.

"George White's 1935 Scandals" was entirely conceived, produced and directed by George White.

BLACK FURY

At The Queen's

A picture packed with tense drama, tempered with humour, romance and astounding spectacles best describes "Black Fury" which opened its season at the Queen's Theatre yesterday.

Paul Muni who has been known for his masterly portrayals surpasses all his previous efforts in this picture.

The locale which is in a coal mine is resplendent with all the fascination of a coal mine—dark and moist with dripping water on all sides, and tons of coal cut for loading.

Karen Morley who plays opposite Muni has the role of the sweetheart. William Gargan is excellent as the treacherous mine policeman who betrays the simple girl and then discards her.

Others in the cast who are worthy of special mention for their portrayals include Vince Barnett, Henry O'Neill, Tully Marshall, Mae Marsh, Sarah Haden, Willard Robertson and George Pat Collins.

THE ALHAMBRA

George O'Brien At His Best

Described as one of George O'Brien's best efforts, "Hard Rock Harrigan" opened its run at the Alhambra Theatre yesterday and lovers of pictures savouring of "big strong he-men" were well satisfied when they saw the picture. With the Colorado River Aqueduct as its background, "Hard Rock Harrigan" is something different to the type of picture with which we have been provided locally and that adds particular attraction to the film.

The story deals with a feud between a husky hard rock driller, portrayed by George O'Brien and his tunnel boss, played by Fred Kohler. The men are engaged in drilling a tunnel through a mountain side to complete a gigantic aqueduct project. The action occurs principally in a construction camp, deep within the interior of the tunnel.

Irene Harvey takes the feminine lead and she contributes in no small measure to the film's success. "Hard Rock Harrigan" is recommended as first class entertainment.—N.M.

YOUNG EAGLES

The international significance of the Boy Scout organization is evidenced by the fact that every four years, Scout representatives from all corners of the globe meet for what is called a "World Jamboree." The most recent of these international conferences took place in Hungary, and was attended by 25,000 Scouts, while almost twice as many boys were present at the preceding "Jamboree," held at Liverpool.

All of which goes to prove that the globe-trotting tendencies of the Boy Scout heroes of "Young Eagles," "Romance Productions" new Chapter Film, which comes to the Alhambra on Tuesday are founded on fact. While international Scout conferences in European capitals play no part in the adventures of these two youthful daredevils, stirring combats with wild beasts in a Central American jungle do.

Two clever young Boy Scout actors, immerse the heroes of "Young Eagles," and are supported by well-known screen favourites.

THE KING'S

Excellent Fare

Those who attended the opening performances of "George White's 1935 Scandals" at the King's Theatre over the week-end, had every reason to say that this show was the best musical comedy seen of the local screens for a long time.

The Scandals of 1934 are not yet altogether out of our minds, but this new picture surpasses all others. There was never a dull moment in the whole programme, and we must certainly raise our hats to America's master showman for having brought to the silver screen such a gorgeous production.

In Alice Faye, George White has picked a box-office winner, and not only do we have the pleasure of seeing this beautiful and charming blonde before us but we hear that beautiful golden voice. James Dunn plays opposite Miss Faye and his happy-go-lucky smile adds vim to the entertainment.

Cliff Edwards, that old favourite, is back again and is as good as ever, one scene in particular which we should rightly term "a night of dreams." Cliff certainly gave of his best, and this scene kept the audience roaring with laughter.

Another very good number was the tap dancing by Miss Powell; she is certainly a wonder and very rightly holds the distinction of the "best girl tap dancer in the world."

This picture is undoubtedly a first class musical comedy, and if you have not already seen it don't miss it.—C.A.

CHILLY ADDIS ABABA

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

The fact that Punjabis who have reinforced the British Legation guard at Addis Ababa were "shivering in the damp, raw air on arrival in the Abyssinian capital may come as a surprise. There seems to be a widespread impression in this country that Addis Ababa suffers from torrid, if not intolerable heat.

The reverse is the case. The capital lies at 8,300 ft. Moreover the fact of it runs up the slope of the hills above, so that in the course of a day the resident or visitor may well mount considerably higher.

A friend tells me that during August he has been wearing ordinary lounge suits of the type worn in England in early spring or late autumn, with the addition of an overcoat when out of doors.

Even after rains are over, it gets very little warmer.

EFFECTS OF HEIGHT

My friend himself, though, he is in perfect health, finds the altitude very trying.

He can only move about at a third of the normal speed, all exertion is an effort, and he suffers from heart pains, headaches and a feeling of suffocation.

Some newcomers do not feel the effects of the height of Addis Ababa at all. On the other hand, several old residents find that even after many years they are not wholly immune to the altitude.

Several members of the British Legation, for instance, have to be very careful, especially in the matter of adhering strictly to a regimen and diet.

ed by well-known screen favourites. Mayan Indians, bandits and dozens of tropical beasts complete the cast and help to supply thrills.

A PARACHUTE
RAIDAll Landed On One
Aerodrome

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

More than 1,000 men took part in a mass parachute raid far behind the "enemy" lines during the Red Army manoeuvres yesterday. They jumped with portable machine-guns and landed on an aerodrome.

This was the most striking event of the manoeuvres, which are being held near the Polish frontier of the Ukraine.

The parachuteists, comprising several companies from the invading "Blue" forces, jumped from a fleet of big four-engined bombers in broad daylight. Needless to say they were caught and "destroyed" by a superior force of motorised infantry and cavalry supported by tanks and even armoured trains.

SIGNIFICANT EXPERIMENT

This incident was clearly "a set piece."

In real war these parachuteists would have been mainly exterminated while floating to earth in full view of the anti-aircraft batteries attached to the aerodrome in question. But this raid was, none the less, of great interest, as showing how more than 1,000 specially trained men can be dropped with parachutes almost simultaneously on to a confined space of strategic interest right behind an enemy's lines.

The day ended with a mass engagement in open country between "Red" and "Blue" cavalry, motorised units, tanks and "plane." The official communiqué specially praises the skill of the cavalry in dodging and resisting aerial attacks, and the high quality of the night-bombing work of the "Red" Air Force.

The Defence Commissar, M. Voroshilov, with his two deputies, M. Tukhachevsky and M. Gamarin, and the French, Italian and Czechoslovak military missions followed every stage of the opening days of these manoeuvres.

TRIAL OF A PEER

Case Of Lord De
Clifford

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

The pending charges of manslaughter and dangerous driving against Lord De Clifford were mentioned at the Central Criminal Court yesterday when the Recorder (Sir Holman Gregory) agreed to the bill of indictment being presented at the next session of the Central Criminal Court in October.

Mr. Eustace Fulton, for the Director of Public Prosecutions, said that the Coroner's inquisitions would go straight to the House of Lords. The officials of the House of Lords, as the House would not be in session until October, thought it would be more convenient if the bill of indictment was not presented until the next session of the Central Criminal Court.

A report of the proceedings at the Central Criminal Court and an article by a correspondent on the right of a peer of the Realm accused of felony to be tried by members of his own order are given on page 9.

DECREESeparate Schools
For Jews

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

Herr Rust, the Minister of Education, has issued a decree designed to bring about "as complete a racial separation as possible" in German schools of all kinds from the school year 1936. Jewish elementary schools are to be established wherever there are enough Jewish children to make it possible. A minimum of 20 in a district is laid down as a guiding rule.

The decree, the full text of which has not yet been published, was issued by the expert for race questions in Herr Rust's Ministry at a Press conference to-day.

The expert claimed that by signing it the Minister was taking actively in hand the fulfilment of an old National-Socialist demand. "Our aim," he said, "is the complete elimination of Jewry from German life: it is ineradicably clear and has already been carried out in various spheres by the officials and hereditary farm legislation, etc."

Much, it is stated, has already been done by setting up special Jewish public and private schools or "non-Aryan children belonging to the Jewish religion." But this is not enough. The fundamental point is not membership of the Jewish confession, but of the Jewish race. "The racially foreign Jewish child is a foreign body in the class community of Aryan school children and teachers. His presence proves an extraordinary impediment in German-conscious National-Socialist instruction and renders impossible the necessary harmony, founded on race, between teacher, scholar, and the material of instruction."

ADMISSION

Even in the higher schools, despite the limitation of admission under the first National-Socialist school law of 1933, Herr Rust finds that there is still a disproportionately high percentage of Jewish children of both classes, especially in big cities, and he proposes to take steps to remedy this state of affairs. In the new Jewish schools he intends to collect together all schoolboys and schoolgirls with either one or two Jewish parents. The so-called quarter-Jews, with only one Jewish grandparent, are to be exempted from the racial separation arrangement.

The President of the Reich Press Chamber has forbidden the public exposure and the sale of newspapers and periodicals which "antagonize or in part, according to the title or the content, are addressed to the Jewish population." The Reich organizations of the German wholesale and retail newsagents are commissioned to supervise the execution of the ordinance.

This is the latest of the series of measures by means of which the Reich Chamber of Culture and its subordinate organizations have sought to banish "Non-Aryans" from even the farthest outskirts of "culture" and deprive them of their livelihood.

LADIES' WEEK

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

This week, I am assured by women who know, is a most important one.

The really exciting dress shows begin!

They hope by the end of the week to know when the royal wedding is to take place.

The Prince of Wales will probably return to England.

The last item is the most important. H.R.H. gives a flit to restaurant parties. There is always a chance he will turn up.

THE PRINCE'S WEEK-ENDS

But the Prince is a confirmed week-ender. He does not mind how hard he works or how many social appearances he has to put in so long as he can get away to Port Belvedere for Saturday and Sunday.

And just now he will be more than usually glad to be back. Like all enthusiastic gardeners he knows that the spring showing depends on the thought and planning of the present.

THINKING TWICE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

Mr. R. B. Bennett is "probably" thinking twice about the suggestion by Mr. Aberhart, the newly-elected Social Credit Premier of Alberta, that citizens of Calgary West should allow the Dominion Premier to retain his seat in the Federal Parliament by acclamation.

It is as yet no more than a suggestion, and likely to remain so while Alberta continues to seek its £3,600,000 subsidy. Incidentally, as Mr. Aberhart has been "doing some figuring," and now believes that £15 a month can be paid to every citizen as easily as £5, it seems possible that he may want more in the near future.

Again, Mr. Aberhart proposes a Social Credit campaign in the Federal Elections throughout the four Western Provinces. Mr. Bennett cannot view with pleasure such a threat to his followers.

THE CRUSADES

Cecil B. DeMille, Master showman in creating this his greatest picture, "The Crusades," gives exhibitors paper-de-luxe entertainment, intriguing the eye with spectacle assailing the heart with tender, romance and exalting the moral sense with religious passion. Fired with inspiration, the production humanizes the primitive virtues to stir and elevate, with each moment enriched by taste and beauty. Aside from pomp and majesty, glitter and gallop, a love clash between Henry Wilton, as Richard the Lion Hearted, Loretta Young, as Princess of Navarre, shines with warmth and fervour. Set against this alliance, C. Henry Gordon, as Philip of France, insists Richard marry his sister, Katherine DeMille, per his royal pledge. Ian Keith, Saracen chief, with Loretta Young his captive, gallantly relinquishes to Richard.

The production is technically perfect. Authentic settings, costume ing, music, battle implements and breath-taking photography all hold an inspired quality for audiences. Colossal as was DeMille's concept in script, just as colossal is the screen masterpiece now coming to be presented at the Queen's Theatre at an early date. It's spellbinding warmth, its strength of muscle and steel, its zeal of minds and men hold one enthralled as one of the world's most glorious pageants relives in ageless romance.

BOOK REVIEW

BY D.E.A.

The literary talent of our colony seems to be on the upward grade. Several books have been written and published in Hong Kong recently, and the latest to appear is extremely useful, as well as being decorative and beautifully printed. The name of this excellent little work is appropriately "The Barman", and it is described "An Anthology of Drinks, Short and Long" Mark Seymour—the author thereof—is well-known locally (under a pseudonym) as a writer of verse as well as of prose, and any one who has sampled his cocktails can vouch for his skill in the art of mixing drinks, as well as playing with words.

"Sabrina" (who needs no introduction to the Hong Kong public) has turned her hand to illustrating this time, and we congratulate her on the amusing little drawings which decorate "The Barman" so successfully.

Every home needs a reliable guide to the mixing of the all important thirst quenchers and energisers which are a positive necessity in the Far East; and I must say that I have never come across such a thoroughly comprehensive little volume as "The Barman". There is a really good recipe in its pages for everything from the most sophisticated cocktail with a name like "Between the Sheets" to a completely teetotal, though super variety of lemon squash. And yet none of the ingredients are hard to come by, and the indexing is so good that you can turn up your particular requirement in a moment.

Suppose, for instance, you have a bottle of crème de menthe left over from last Xmas Kumshaws; and you feel it was about time something was done about it—all you have to do is to turn to "Cocktails Under their Dominant Flavours" and under Crème de Menthe you will find "Hell" and "Hurricane". Quickly turning to "H" in the alphabetical list you arrive at the best possible method of creating "Hell". What more do you want?

And talking of Xmas, this invaluable little book is going to be a most acceptable gift for a large number of friends this year.

Remember "The Barman" by Mark Seymour, illustrated by Sabrina, published by Yue Shing, and obtainable at Brewers, price $2.50.

The accused denied the second charge of assaulting a house boy named Sin King-san. Bail of $50 was allowed.

Many took advantage of the opportunity to visit and worship at the grave of their ancestors or parents and relatives. The day was also observed for the "sweeping" and repairing of graves.

In Hong Kong yesterday, the Chinese observed this festival by visiting the Victoria Peak in their hundreds as in former years, and doubt the Peak Tramway and the public motor car companies did a roaring business.

Hundreds of men, women and children journeyed the whole day up the Peak. Flagstaff on foot, bringing with them cakes and other delicacies as many observed the day as a walking picnic.

THE SILVER JUBILEE
Of The Portuguese Republic

The 25th Anniversary of the declaration of the Republic of Portugal was fittingly celebrated on Saturday by the Portuguese Community of Hong Kong when a reception was held at the Club Lusitano.

The Clubhouse was very pleasantly decorated and the Portuguese flag was everywhere in evidence. The Portuguese Consul-General, Senhor A. V. A. Brilhante-Laborinhe, received his guests at the entrance of the large ball room and many called to offer their felicitations.

In the speeches delivered by the Consul-General and Sir Atholl MacGregor respectively the Anglo-Portuguese friendship was stressed.

Music was provided by an excellent band under the direction of Professor F. Gonsalves.

THE KING
In proposing the toast of His Majesty the King the Consul-General said:

"I should hate to speak in Portuguese, but I would succeed in being understood. I also dislike speaking in English, as nobody understands me, but it is necessary that I must address you firstly, to discharge one of my professional duties, and secondly to discharge a personal and most enjoyable duty to thank you for your kindness and sympathy in honouring the occasion with your presence."

"Portugal, an old country, born in the old Europe, which extended its empire all over the world, remaining up to the present the third colonial Power, transformed its political Government on the morning of October 5, 1910."

"Amid the booming of the guns and the enthusiastic clamours of the people, which willingly shed their blood for an ideal, was born the Republic, which attains to-day its twenty-fifth anniversary."

stronger and healthier than ever, with full knowledge of its position in the universal equilibrium.

"Within the dark clouds we foresee the future of the world's peace. The political systems hesitate in face of the novel economical and social problems which confront them. Economic theories lose their practical value and become almost Utopian in the field of science. The Machiavellian doctrine, in its selfish principles, is ever improved."

"The present is the time for action. The problem bears its solution on its face. Diplomacy is out of its former stage and needs to look forward, with greater caution, to the events of the future. In the midst of the feverish conditions which dominate all the nations, Portugal stands serene and sure, as in the past the sailors in their caravel scoured over the unknown oceans."

ANGLO-PORTUGUESE FRIENDSHIP
"Forgive me for this enthusiasm, as the spirit of youth prevails in me, and the new generation from which I rise, which is growing in Portugal, is nursed from infancy in patriotic faith believing in an ever greater and better Portugal."

"The fact of my serving for the first time in a British Colony adds to my enthusiasm to-day. I am able, with deep satisfaction, to verify that the Anglo-Portuguese friendship is not only on paper; it is manifested from the personal acquaintances in private life to the official intercourse, with which notwithstanding my short residence in Hong Kong, I am bound by the link of sincere and loyal acknowledgment."

"In thanking Your Excellency, as the representative of the official authorities of this colony, the Consular body, and one and all who have spontaneously honoured this solemn day for Portugal with their presence, I propose the toast of His Majesty the King."

SIR ATHOLL'S REPLY

In proposing the toast of the President of Portugal, His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, said:

"Mr. Consul, and members of the Portuguese Association: on behalf of all your guests and friends whom you have made so welcome here this morning, I desire first to extend an expression of our grateful thanks and the pleasure it gives each one of us to testify to the importance of this occasion and the fact that we have not forgotten that Portugal has not only been one of our most ancient allies, but throughout the century has been one of our greatest friends."

"It occurs to me as rather strange that we have to be here to-day in the position of hosts and guests, because the Portuguese have throughout closely identified themselves in the thought and prosperity of this Colony, so that we have come to regard them as nothing but pure citizens of the British Empire. (Applause.)"

"The seems to me a fitting occasion to thank them, and to mention the very great and real pleasure it gives every one of us to see that the great services of their member on the Legislative Council, the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga, have been recognised, and that his name was mentioned in last year's Honours List."

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

"If I may be personal once more I should like to express the satisfaction this occasion gives to me here to-day for the reason that I myself was in Lisbon on October 15, 1910, and was able to see the Republican forces come down and take Lisbon."

"On behalf of everyone of your guests I desire to thank you for your hospitality to-day, and for the way in which you proposed and drank the health of His Majesty the King. In turn, on behalf of each one of us, I give the health of the President of Portugal."

THOSE PRESENT

Among those who called at the Club were:

Captain Cragg, A.D.C. to His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, on behalf of His Excellency Mr. N. L. Smith, Sir Atholl MacGregor, the Hon. Sir Henry and Lady Pollock, the Hon. Sir William Shenton, Bishop Valtorta, Commodore C. G. Sedgwick, the Hon. Dr. S. W. and Mrs. T. So, Mr. R. H. Kotewall, the Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau, the Hon. Mr. M. K. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

THE SILENT GUIDE TO HONG KONG.

WHAT IT IS: The "Silent Guide" consists of a large illuminated street map of Hong Kong (18 feet by 6 feet). The map, which is coloured, is painted on a ground glass background, behind which are over 5000 small lamps. At a convenient distance from the large map is a small switchboard containing a number of six inch glass panels for subscribers' names, addresses and telephone numbers, each with its own button switch.

WHERE IT WILL BE: At the entrance to the Star Ferry wharf (Hong Kong side) where it will be seen by 90% of the tourists and other visitors arriving at Hong Kong, besides the many thousands of residents who make daily use of the Star Ferry on their way to and from business.

WHAT IT WILL DO: Anyone wishes to find the location of an office, hotel, theatre, bank, shop or other business in Hong Kong. He goes to the switchboard where he finds the names of subscribers, properly classified and arranged alphabetically. He presses the appropriate button and the subscriber's name on the panel board immediately lights up. At the same time, on the large street map, a coloured lamp will show the exact position of the office or shop, etc. he is looking for, and the quickest route will also be indicated by lighting up the road to be taken right the way from the Star Ferry to his destination. Bus and tram routes will be shown by special coloured lamps. Subscribers' names will be in Chinese as well as English if desired, and an attendant will be stationed at the switchboard to give assistance to strangers if required.

WHAT IT WILL COST: The service is free to the general public, and only a nominal charge will be made to subscribers of $30 per year per name panel. This fee will include a free insertion of the subscriber's name, address, particulars of his business, agencies, etc., etc. in the "SILENT GUIDE" DIRECTORY which will be published in conjunction with the "Silent Guide" and which may be obtained from the attendant at the Star Ferry for ten cents. The Directory will contain a small replica of the large illuminated map for recording, with a pencil, any position or route located on the large map.

THE "SILENT GUIDE" INVENTION is the property of the Tell The World Publishing Co., Sutton House, Duddell Street, who will be pleased to reserve name panel spaces on application. Patents have been applied for. The installation, which is expected to take six weeks from the time when the names of intending subscribers have been collected, is in the hands of Messrs. H. W. Buckingham & Co., Tai Ping Building.

"ACADEMIC FREEDOM"

The pursuit of learning and the teaching of youth are disinterested tasks which, it might be thought, would be little interrupted by political upheavals but the various revolutions throughout Europe have shaken many professors off the dais, and at the Conference on Academic Freedom which opened recently in peaceful Oxford, quite a number of the representatives from the Continent spoke bitterly of the assaults made on the teaching profession—in Italy, Spain, Germany elsewhere. It was stated that in Germany alone no fewer than 1,200 lecturers, research workers and professors have been ousted by the Nazis, but obviously to do justice to the doctrines of the new Germany, tutors with new qualifications would be necessary. As Professor Lascelles Abercrombie said, "there seems a definite and deliberate hostility to education itself." Of course that may be because turbulent men, of stirring and active disposition, such as have gained power in many European countries, have ever felt scorn for contemplative and scholarly minds while the teacher, moreover, is apt to be classed among the sponsors and propagators of the system overthrown.

There are those who feel that Professor Abercrombie's sympathy for his persecuted colleagues is justified but it would indeed be unfortunate if some of his remarks were thought by the Conference to apply to Britain. For example he spoke of "an attempt to restrict education to a certain well-favoured class," and of the "all too successful attempt to control and manage education for the purpose of certain political and economic interests." In Britain, the originator of universal schooling, the criticism is not that education is too restricted, but that the endeavour to make every numskull into a scholar is frantically and wastefully overdone. Nor is any section of English education prostrated to political interest—unless Professor Abercrombie has in mind the snubbing of innocent national pride in a schoolgirl's essay, or the rewriting of "patriotic" sentences in L.C.C. textbooks by the London Socialists. Here academic freedom is accorded to teachers of an extremely free and academic turn: to Professor Laski for instance, both when he lauds Marxian Socialism at home or in Moscow. Professor Abercrombie is among those who wrote to congratulate Auckland University on ignoring a pacifist address served up by one of the exchange lecturers from Leeds University. Each man is allowed his own opinion by British tolerance, even when a majority consider them subversive, but it will be readily agreed that it is unfitting that a Chair of Learning should become a rostrum for the propaganda of minorities. There is an etiquette in these matters.

(BY CHANCE)

The Polo Finals between the Gunners and the Royal Welch Fusiliers was held last Wednesday on the new Polo ground under ideal conditions and perfect weather, and was attended by a large and smart crowd. The Gunners were excellent hosts, and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves immensely.

I noticed Mrs. Wilson looking very pretty in grey and dark blue, and went on to the Polo ground after the game was over to see the ponies. Mrs. Keary was there too, looking very nice in pink and brown. Mrs. David Kyle I saw in the distance, wearing an attractive printed frock, covered by a long white coat. Navy blue and white was very much in evidence, and amongst those wearing it was Mrs. Tindal, who looked very smart. Mrs. Carrington Sykes, in a white dress and a long navy blue coat, and Mrs. Russell too also favoured navy blue and white. Mrs. Peter Davies, who was passing through en route for Singapore, after having spent her honeymoon in Japan, came with her husband, and looked most attractive in a printed crepe-de-chine dress, and a very becoming large white hat. Mrs. Bishop came with her brother and sister-in-law, and looked exceedingly smart in a dark blue printed dress, and her husband was there too.

Miss Kitty Lambie, who has been on a visit from Shanghai was looking very fresh and nice in a white suit, with a brown blouse and hat to match. She came with Mrs. Rees who was very gay as usual, and looking vivacious in a blue and white striped dress, and an attractive dark blue halo hat. Heather and Barbara Hance were watching the game together, and both looking smart in white tailored dresses. Barbara had touches of brown on hers, and Heather navy blue. Mrs. Campbell looked very cool and fresh in green and white, and also Mrs. Wandless, who I was only able to see in the distance. Mrs. John Moore was attractive in a light suit and a pretty green blouse.

Altogether it was a very enjoyable afternoon and we were very pleased to see the best win.

MACHINE GUN GYMKHANA

Troop of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps held their annual Gymkhana on the old Polo ground at Causeway Bay. Everybody seemed to be there, the grounds were very gaily decorated, and the band of the Royal Welch Fusiliers played throughout the afternoon.

Lady Macgregor was looking very smart in purple and white, and at the end gave away the prizes, and received a bouquet of flowers from little Wendy Joseph. Mrs. Thackeray looked delightful in blue and white, and was watching the events with great interest. Mrs. Harrison was in brown and white, looking so cool and nice. Lady Southern looked charming, so too, did Mrs. Sedgwick. Mrs. Croucher was very smart in dark blue, and seemed very amused and interested in the under 7 competition. Miss Mary Smith, who came with her father, was in white with touches of dark blue. Mrs. Carrington Sykes was there, looking so nice in a dark blue and white check dress and a dark blue hat. Mrs. Robertson with her lovely fair colouring, looked striking in white with dark blue, and seemed to be enjoying herself immensely. Mrs. Morris, who came with her husband, was smart in brown and white. Mrs. Alec Potts was in an attractive pink spotted suit, with a pretty brown hat, and was proud of her small son Peter, who we were all pleased to see get a prize.

We were glad to see Bob Charles back and recovered from his serious illness, and by the way, most of the children who rode, showed great credit to him and Betty and Beryl Fair.

I was particularly attracted by Wendy Joseph and Alan Cutcher and the way they rode.

GUNNERS CELEBRATE

BY ONLOOKER

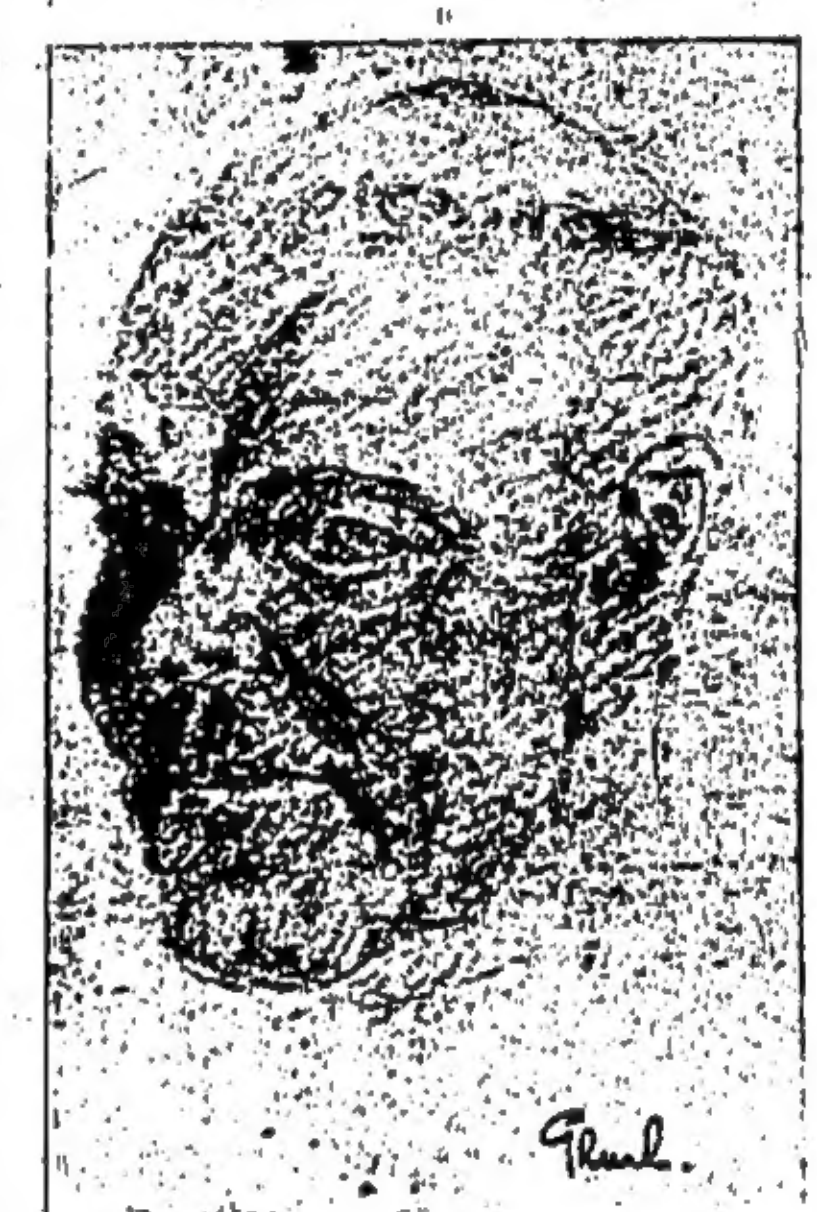

What an eventful week to be sure! Hong Kong seems very cosmopolitan just now—with the American Navy here, and the Hotels and shops are seething with nice visitors.

Lieut.-General O. C. Borrett presents the K.O.Y.L.I. Cup to the successful Artillery team, after the Polo Finals last week.

Wednesday night at the "Grips" was full of cheer. To begin with, I was assisting at a birthday party and everybody was on the crest of a wave as befitting the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson were amongst the guests, the latter looking particularly lovely in that delicious shade of pale pink which suits her so well. Of course there were lots of "Gunners" celebrating their polo victory, and all their friends, including Betty and Heather Gerrard, Vera Hodgson and Sylvia Morris.

Diana Dowdell has come back from the North, and has completely recovered from her operation. Miss Murrow was with her father, and looked very well, too.

Mr. S. R. Kerr, who has for more than 18 months filled the onerous role of Secretary of the Hong Kong Club, is probably one of the most popular and widely known personalities in Hong Kong.

Six years Secretary of the renowned Yokohama United Club, Dick Kerr has worked wonders for Hong Kong clubmen. Structural alterations, improved billiard rooms and accommodation of all sorts have been put in hand, and his enlightened grasp has lifted even the "Snake Pit" to more edifying heights.

THE "TAMAR" DANCE

Parties in the Tamar are always fun, and the Cocktail Dance given for the American Naval visitors was a particularly cheerful affair. A Hotel band played all our favourite tunes, and in spite of the return to summer weather conditions we danced with great gusto. The Americans wives were just as smart and attractive as they could possibly be, and so enthusiastic about our Hong Kong.

One of the first American wives I met was Mrs. Fahley. Her sister Mrs. Lent was there too. Our own "lovelies" were in great form of course. Mrs. McAvoy had the most fascinating frilled collar effect, and Mary Drake looked wonderful in black. It is nice to see Mrs. St. Croix back again.

Mrs. Andrews looked radiant as ever in a half hat, and Miss Lamherth looked very cheerful too. Mrs. John Ropes also sponsored a halo—they are a divine fashion.

Afterwards at the "Hong Kong Hotel," Chinese chow was a good suggestion, and some of us repaired to the Roo Garden for a change. The band played lovely Russian music as well as some tangos. We were all very pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. Plovenelli back again—I believe they had only arrived that day. I don't blame them for choosing delicious Chinese chow after an absence of several months.

ITALIANS CONTINUE ADVANCE ON ALL FRONTS

Reckless Bravery By Defenders

ADOWA REPORTED TO HAVE FALLEN

Frontier Posts Bombed

A message from Asmara in Eritrea last night gave the bare announcement that Adowa had fallen, but this was not mentioned in a subsequent Rome message announcing the capture of Adigrat. A desperate battle had been waged since Friday for the possession of Adowa and the defenders showed remarkable bravery in face of the land and air assaults.

Heavy fighting is proceeding in Ogaden where frontier posts have been bombed and further gains made by the Italians. Another attack is being made from the southern frontier of Italian Somaliland above the Kenya border.

Probably owing to the censorship which has been imposed at the Ethiopian capital, very little war news has filtered through, and it also seems that the Italians in the north have reached difficult country over which they will have to advance slowly and cautiously.

The League Assembly has been convened for Wednesday and the feeling is growing that once aggression has been established the application of sanctions will be undertaken.

Paris, Oct. 5.

A message from Addis Ababa states that the main army under Ras Seyoum has apparently not yet reached the fighting line at Adowa, only one division resisting the Italian advance there.

Heavy fighting proceeded all day yesterday round Adowa, when the Italians succeeded in crossing the River Mareb. The Abyssinians fought with reckless bravery, but suffered heavily owing to the superior Italian equipment. There was little quarter on either side.

The Italians have brought many tanks and armoured cars into action, especially on the Ogaden front.

HEAVY LOSSES

Addis Ababa, Oct. 5. There was very severe hand-to-hand fighting all night long in the Danakil country, especially near Asfab. Both sides suffered very heavy losses. It is unofficially estimated that 1,300 Ethiopians and 700 Italians were killed.

Italian aeroplanes bombed Dessie at eight o'clock this morning. It is officially announced that the death roll caused by the bombardment of Adowa was 63.

ETHIOPIAN CLAIMS

The Ethiopians claim to be holding their own in the fierce skirmishes on the northern front. Neither Adowa nor Adigrat has fallen.

Ras Seyoum reports that the casualties were very heavy north of Adigrat. One Italian and three Eritrean officers were killed and three machine-guns captured.

The authorities decline to class the fighting as a pitched battle, but rather call it a clash between advance guards.

DESPERATE COMBAT

Addis Ababa, Oct. 5. A desperate combat is proceeding in front of the Italian trenches north of Adowa. Bayonets meet daggers, and neither side can gain appreciably. The casualty list is heavy.

Guerrilla warfare is reported round Gerlogubi, 50 miles north-east of Gohari, which is reported to have been bombed by the Italians this morning.

News from the Ogaden front, however, is very vague. Seven Italian planes have flown over Hayafetche, 70 miles in from Addis Ababa.

ROME ADMISSION

Rome, Oct. 5. The first admission that the invasion of Abyssinia also started from Italian Somaliland was contained in this afternoon's communiqué stating that the Italians occupied Dolo near the Kenya border, and bombed Gorahai about 100 miles to the northwest well within Abyssinia.

The newspaper "Tribuna" declares that the Abyssinian Government is establishing a censorship of wireless messages from Addis Ababa.

This paper also alleges that quantities of arms of British and Belgian manufacture are being imported through Zella for distribution to the garrison at Harrar.

CROWDS DISAPPOINTED

Rome, Oct. 5. Adowa has not yet fallen. Huge crowds assembled late last night at Palazzo Venezia in the expecta-

MESSAGE FROM ITALY

Normal Relations With Britain

London, Oct. 5.

According to the "Times," Signor Grandi, Italian Ambassador in London, communicated to Sir Samuel Hoare, British Foreign Secretary, a cordial message from Signor Mussolini, making it clear that Italy's action in Ethiopia had in no way altered Signor Mussolini's determination, if possible in agreement with Britain and France, to avoid any step leading to the extension of the conflict.

He suggested the cancellation of all the precautionary measures in the Mediterranean with a view to replacing the present tension by sincere co-operation.

Signor Mussolini had no intention of withdrawing from Geneva unless forced to do so, and held the door unlocked for friendly discussion with the British and French Governments. He said that negotiations intended to establish normal relations would be welcome in Rome.

An identical message was conveyed to M. Laval in Paris.

COLD RECEPTION

It is learned that Sir Samuel Hoare, in reply to Signor Grandi, stated that there had been an unfortunate and very grave misunderstanding of the British attitude on the part of the Italian Government, and the resort to military action by the Italians made increasingly difficult any progress towards a settlement.

It is understood that the suggestion of Signor Mussolini, that there should be simultaneous and parallel cancellations of the precautionary measures undertaken in the Mediterranean to meet a danger which really did not exist, evoked no rejoinder on the part of Sir Samuel Hoare.

EGYPTIAN COTTON IN DEMAND

Alexandria, Oct. 5.

Exporters have received urgent demands for Egyptian cotton, especially in the past three days. These are apparently due to the fear of a possible blockade which will cut off supplies for essential war manufactures like motor tyres, tents and uniforms.

British exporters are declining to ship cotton to Italy, since the Italians refuse to pay in advance, but Italian exporters are complying with the demand. The steamers Triestino and Ausonia are leaving Alexandria carrying 4,000 bales to Italy this afternoon.

BARON ALOISI SPEAKS AT GENEVA

Claims Justification For Military Action

COMMITTEE'S REPORT CONTAIN SEVERE REFLECTIONS

Geneva, October 5.

The Council room was packed and the atmosphere charged with tension when the Council met at 6 p.m. and received the report of the Committee of Thirteen which was not adopted this evening as the two disputants had only just received the text.

The gravity of the situation was reflected on the faces of every member, Baron Aloisi and M. Teclé Hawariate facing each other from opposite ends of a horseshoe table.

Baron Aloisi in a long speech declared that the operations of Italian troops as a result of the Ethiopian mobilisation was perfectly legitimate within the compass of the covenant because it constitutes immediate and necessary action against an act of provocation.

The Italian spokesman quoted from the Negus' statement issued with the mobilisation order referring to promises that Ethiopian warriors will be rewarded for their services by territories in Eritrea and Italian Somaliland.

The Italian Government appreciates the efforts of the Council he said, but the League should realise from the start that the first thing to be considered was the unworthiness of Ethiopia to belong to the League.

M. Teclé Hawariate then spoke to invoke Article XVI as mentioned in the note to the Secretariat.

Dr. Benes announced the convocation of the Council for Wednesday.

On the suggestion of Mr. Anthony Eden that the new Committee of Six have a lot of ground to cover before Monday, it was decided that the Committee meet in the evening and the Council adjourned at 6.50 p.m.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Geneva, Oct. 5.

On the frontiers of the British and French territories continuous to Abyssinia there have been raids and incidents affecting the interest of these Powers, but they have been settled by diplomatic methods.

This is one passage in the report of the Committee of Thirteen which contains severe reflections on the Italian Government's conduct in the dispute.

The report says that Britain and France have taken account of the conditions in Ethiopia and realised that in these incidents and raids no aggression had been sought or encouraged by the Central Government.

None of the three powers continuous to Abyssinia has ever laid any grievances before the Council and, if the Italian Government had laid their grievances before the Council, the latter would certainly have endeavoured to remedy the situation.

ORDER IN ETHIOPIA

Referring to the internal situation in Ethiopia, the report says that the Governments which supported Ethiopia's request for admission to the League in 1923 were aware of the internal situation at that time. Far from there being more disorder now, Ethiopia is better organised and the Central Government is better obeyed.

The report also pointed out that in the interval between the Ethiopian appeal to the Council on December 14, 1934 and the Italian memorandum of September 4, 1935, the Italian Government had opposed consideration of the question by the Council on the ground that the appropriate procedure was the 1923 treaty, but during the whole period the despatch of troops to East Africa proceeded.

Reuter.

ASSEMBLY ON WEDNESDAY

Geneva, Oct. 5.

The path of the League operations is now becoming clear. The Assembly will be convened at 4 p.m. on Wednesday by which time the Committee will be able beyond doubt to name the aggressor.

If, as expected, it is clear that Article XII has been violated, sanctions will automatically come into play. A Committee will be established immediately to co-ordinate the application of sanctions which in the first case will be economic and financial, including rupture of diplomatic relations.

ARMS EMBARGO

The next step will be the raising of the arms embargo on Abyssinia and later an embargo on Italian supplies.

A definite plan to apply sanctions is contained in the note to the Secretariat from Abyssinia invoking Paragraph 2 of Article XVI of the covenant.

The note "respectfully but firmly" declares that the Italian action constitutes an act of war within the meaning of that article.

Reuter.

NEARER TO SANCTIONS

Geneva, Oct. 5.

Things are moving slowly but surely and inexorably towards the application of Article XVI of the covenant of the first time in League history. The Council must make no false step and its motto must hasten slowly.

Mr. Eden's desire that the Committee of Six begin work in the evening showed that the Council was determined to brook no delay.

The Committee sat for one hour and appointed the Portuguese delegate as chairman. It will meet again to-morrow afternoon. Meanwhile the Secretariat has been instructed to prepare dossiers of all documents bearing on the case.

NEXT IMPORTANT STEP

This Committee will form the basis for the next important step, namely determination of the aggressor. It should be possible for the Council to reach a decision on Monday when the next step will be the consideration of sanctions possibly to be undertaken.

Italians who had been asked how Baron Aloisi overcame the objection to sitting at the table with the Abyssinian delegate replied that "since we are now exchanging bullets across the trenches we can exchange words across the Council table."

COMMITTEE OF SIX

Geneva, Oct. 5.

In juridical language the Committee of Thirteen recommended firstly that if violation of the covenant has occurred it should be rectified. Secondly, that the Council reserve the right to take any necessary measures.

This means that negotiations under Article XV are now only possible if Italy ceases operations and withdraws her troops from Abyssinia.

With this view a sub-committee will be established of Britain, France, Rumania, Portugal, Chile and Denmark to examine the situation in the light of the communications from both parties.

EMBARGO ON EXPORT OF MUNITIONS

American Neutrality Act Comes Into Force

Washington, October 6.

President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation announcing the existence of a state of war between Italy and Ethiopia, thereby automatically bringing into force the embargo on the export of munitions to both belligerents under the Neutrality Act.

The embargo is confined to actual munitions and does not extend to the raw materials list. It is identical to that for which export licences are required by the State Department, namely arms, ammunition, war vessels and all aeroplanes.

The list now includes all aircraft both civil and military in addition to the items decreed in the President's recent proclamation, namely rifles; machine-guns; all classes of ammunition; all types of war vessels, including aircraft-carriers and submarines; aircraft, assembled or dismantled, designed for fighting, utilising guns or dropping of bombs; as well as aircraft engines, mustard gas and flame throwers.

Figures issued by the State Department recently show that Ethiopia will not be affected, but Italy will lose a valuable source of aeroplane parts and engines. Other munition exports to Italy are not important.

It being officially advised by the State Department that a state of war existed, President Roosevelt by wireless from the cruiser Houston directed Mr. Cordell Hull to issue the proclamation.

ROOSEVELT'S STATEMENT

President Roosevelt simultaneously made a statement as follows: "Notwithstanding the hope we entertained that war will be avoided and the exertion of our influence in that direction, we are now compelled to recognise the simple and indisputable fact that the Ethiopian and Italian armed forces are in combat, thus creating a state of war within the meaning of the joint resolution (referring to the Neutrality Act).

"In these specific circumstances I desire it to be understood that any of our people who voluntarily engage in transactions of any character with either belligerents do so at their own risk."

SHIPS AND CARGOES

The all-inclusive denial of protection to citizens engaging in transactions with belligerents goes far beyond the wording of the Act though it accords with the resolutions introduced by Senators Nye and Clark but not passed.

It presumably means that the United States would not officially protect ships and cargoes bound for either belligerents, namely that she would not oppose League or other blockade and apparently would not insist on any neutral rights of commerce whatever.

DECISION WELCOMED

Geneva, Oct. 6. The decision of the American Government is warmly welcomed in British quarters as well as League circles where it is felt that America has given an important lead to the Council decision and is also regarded as an invitation: "Go ahead with sanctions; America will not interfere."

The general feeling is that it is no longer a question whether sanctions will be taken, but what will be the nature of the sanctions.

AMERICAN SUBJECTS IN ABYSSINIA

Washington, Oct. 4.

The United States Charge d'Affairs in Addis Ababa, Mr. Engert, has notified the State Department that he has insisted on women and children attached to missions departing immediately.

Mr. Engert adds that the Ethiopian officials have given an assurance that everything possible will be done to protect Americans, while the British Minister has offered to provide gas masks for any Americans and has also offered American facilities to erect tents in the compound of the British Legation.

IRELAND'S ATTITUDE IN THE DISPUTE

Dublin, Oct. 5.

Mr. de Valera in a broadcast address to the Free State on his attitude in the Italo-Ethiopian conflict said that when the present Free State Government assumed office they had decided to continue their membership of the League and had accepted the obligations of the Covenant, but they had no other obligations of any kind.

The Free State could not be committed to active participation in any war without the consent of the Free State Parliament.

The Free State consistently held that the obligations of the Covenant should be enforced. That was their attitude in the Sino-Japanese conflict and it was their attitude at present.

FOOTBALL PROVES DULL AND DISAPPOINTING

Artillery Derby Ends In A Draw

Club Surprised By St. Joseph's: Police Draw With Fusiliers

Football results over the week-end were very much as expected. Recreio with a very much depleted team drew with the Lincolns while Kowloon did well to lose to the East Lanes by only two goals, and St. Joseph's College gladdened the heads of their supporters when they beat Hong Kong Football Club by the only goal scored. It was a very interesting game from start to finish. Both teams were playing well and the score of one-nil is a good indication of the trend of play.

Yesterday Police managed to force the Fusiliers to a draw. The soldiers put up a very sound defence and but for their erratic shooting they might have won the day. At Sookunpoo the two Artillery teams met. Lyemun was surprised by Stonecutters' when leading by two goals, but towards the middle of the second half the Stonecutters' team staged a magnificent comeback and forced their opponents to share six goals with them. At Caroline Hill South China despite being strengthened by several senior players went down to the Athletics by 3 goals to 1 in a junior game.

The Royal Artillery (Stonecutters) caused an upset when they met R.A. Lyemun yesterday in their First Division encounter, by holding them to a draw after being two goals down in the middle of the second half. Lyemun had only themselves to blame for not getting the run, points as they seemed to take things too easily with their 2 goal lead, and almost had to admit defeat when the "Islanders" got into their stride. Five minutes from the start Reece netted with an easy header from a corner. They nearly got another when a misunderstanding between Price and Hal. allowed the ball to roll past the goal mouth.

Here onward the game ran into a ding dong struggle. "Lyemuns" took things too easily when they found the weakness of their opponents.

REECE MISSES

Reece missed a sitter, when he got possession in front of the goal by driving the ball well over the cross-bar.

The second goal came as the result of Price and Lewis fumbling in front of the goal mouth and Reece, seizing this opportunity, rushed in and drove the ball well beyond Hal's reach.

With this 2 nil lead the Lyemuns began to take things easily. The Islanders could not get together and they found Morton and Company too good for them; Morton especially excelled with his head-work.

In the middle of this half the Islanders began to wake up, and Smith who was about their best winger took the ball away on the left wing and drove in a beauty that gave Dorham no chance. The equaliser came from Barracough who sent a good shot from a difficult angle. A little later the Islanders took the lead when Gardiner tipped the ball in front of the goal and Dorham ran out only to fumble an easy save but the ball slipped from his hand and entered the goal.

With this set back Lyemun got to work and tried very hard to stave off defeat. Shortly before the final whistle Edmund dribbled right through to score the best goal of the match, thus enabling them to draw 3 all.

FAST GAME

In a fast game featured by the brilliance of both defences, the Police drew with the Royal Welsh Fusiliers 2 all, at the Kowloon Football Club ground. At half time the soldiers lead by 2 goals to one, both of which were netted by Roberts, their left winger. Green got the Police's solitary point.

On resumption Johnston equalised for the Police with a shot that had Rowlands beaten all the way. Excitement ran high when both goals were raised in turn, but the final whistle blew with neither side being able to get the winning goal.

The game was played at a fast pace throughout, and although the soldiers had things more their own way the first half, the Police made a spectacular recovery, and the Fusiliers' defence was given many an anxious moment. As it was the Police drew level and it was only the brilliance of Rowlands in goal that prevented them going ahead.

McHardy is goal, was very safe while he had admirable support from Blackburn and C. Pile. The outstanding player on the field was Kenneghan, the centre-half of the Fusiliers, who tackled well and delighted his spectators with some timely interceptions. When the score was level, Johnston thrilled the spectators with a shot for goal which Rowlands had to dive full length to save. He pushed the ball to Kea'en who cleared.

Again, not many minutes later, Johnston received a pass from Moss on the left wing, and drove hard for goal, but Rowlands was "on the spot" and cleared spectacularly.

The final whistle blew with play in mid-field. The teams lined up as under: Police:—MacHardy, Blackburn and C. Pile. Brooks, Gough and Britton; T. Pile. Johnston, Stevens, Green and Moss.

Fusiliers:—Rowland, Wheeler and Keaton, Wanklyn, Kenneghan and Ellis; Hughes, Allison, Sullivan, Talbot and Roberts.

Despite the fact that they were strengthened by several senior players South China—lost to the Athletics in a junior game at Caroline Hill Ground 3 goals to one.

It was a game of lost chances by the South China forwards and the Athletics defence gave a good exhibition of how to deal with fast raiding forwards. A feature of the game was the good goal keeping of Li Kwok Kee who saved the Athletics on more than one occasion.

South China attacked strongly in the first half and Chu Tak Fai scored after Lee Kwok Kee had saved in quick succession. Athletic then came back when Yeung Kan Po beat the backs to equalise. After the interval the Athletics played better football and towards the middle of this half Chau Man Chi put them ahead with a first timer.

South China attacked for a while but Li Kwok Kee dealt with the shots in an admirable manner. Several breakaways were effected by the Athletics in one of which, towards the end, Yeung Kan Po scored his second goal when the South China back miskicked.

DULL FOOTBALL

Saturday's premier soccer league games provided some very dull play in comparison with the previous week-end. The only upset of the afternoon was the surprising defeat of the Club at the hands of St. Joseph's who clinched a couple of points by a narrow margin victory of 1 nil.

At Sookunpoo the Lincolns composedly outplayed the Recreio in their first division encounter, but were only able to get away with a single point.

The game on the whole was one of the dullest seen in local soccer for a long time. The soldiers had all the opportunities of scoring but they did not seem to take matters seriously with the result that they had to be content to share the points.

The Portuguese were a very much weakened team and their forwards could not get going at goal to stave off defeat.

R. Marques the Rec's goalie brought off some good saves, and Bowen and Maher in front of him gave him their full share of support.

Delgado at centre half hung on to Higgins like a leech but he could do very little on his own.

The Portuguese attack was a very poor combination, and were seldom dangerous. Gomes and Castillo were trying but whenever they got away on their own they finished off second best when encountering the soldiers defence.

Ridley and Higgins appeared to be without their usual dash and the Lincoln's forward were rarely seen to any advantage. Baldry and Malpas attempted some long shots but none of them gave Marques any trouble.

EAST LANCS WIN

East Lanes had very little difficulty in defeating Kowloon in their First Division match on the Kowloon ground on Saturday when they won by 2 clear goals.

The soldiers dominated the play in every department and the result of a 2 nil victory somewhat flatters the civilians.

The soldiers, as a team, were excellent—they played well together and had a perfect understanding; a few of the players who call for special mention were Lawton, who played an excellent game in the pivotal position, Sandford, who was always on the alert and quick to snap up any chance of a shot at goal, and the backs, Swain and Gorman.

SAINTS CAUSE UPSET

The game between St. Joseph's and the Club provided the only surprise of Saturday afternoon, the Saints running out winners by 1 goal to nil.

The Club started off with some rapid movements, but the speedy defence of Sinclair and Costa soon put an end to these early attacks. In addition to the sound defence of the Saints they had in G. Singh a very capable leader, and he was the cause of many anxious moments to the Club defence.

A few minutes before the end of the first half G. Singh netted the only goal of the match, which effected two valuable points.

In the second half the Club tried very hard to draw level, but their forwards found great difficulty in penetrating the Saints' strong defence. On the other hand the Saints tried equally hard to increase their lead but the Club halves were in good form and offered strong resistance.

BLACK HAWK WINS

A very interesting friendly baseball game was played on Saturday between a Hong Kong team and the U.S.S. Black Hawk in which the sailors ran out winners by the odd run in 17.

The Mindanao's arrival in port on Saturday helped to strengthen the local team and Jones, their pitcher, did yeoman service on the mound.

Manson started the pitching for the Black Hawk, and proved expensive in the first innings, when he walked three players and allowed four runs to be scored.

In the last innings the locals were leading by one run. Murphy reached first on an error. Tessier got to first on fielder's choice, and Murphy was lucky to be called safe on second when M. Chang dropped the ball on an attempted double play. Shankis, who was prominent with some hard hitting in the previous innings, then hit a two-bagger to bring these two in and thus win the game.

MACHINE GUN TROOP

Hold Successful Gymkhana

The large crowd that turned out on the old Polo Ground on Saturday were treated to some excellent feats of horsemanship, when the Machine Gun Troop of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps held their annual Gymkhana. The ground which was well laid out and gaily decorated with flags and bunting, looked fit for such an occasion.

Among those present were H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, Mr. N. L. Smith, and Miss Smith, H.E. the General Officer Commanding the Troops, Major General F. S. The Trailer Race provided much amusement. Two men with a pole across their stomachs, pulled a lady mounted on a surf-board made of three-ply wood round the area—there were many spills. Potts, Officer Commanding the Machine Gun Troop, said that the occasion had been specially honoured by the attendance of H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, Mr. N. L. The president's Cup (presented by the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, C.M.G., L.L.D.) was won by the Sea Scouts, who were the runners-up Troop.

SIX WEEKS REST

For Fred Perry

(Special Air Mail Service)
London, Sept. 16.

Fred J. Perry has become the hero of the American sporting public. It has now dawned on them that in not retiring yesterday because of his injured leg, and in giving Wilmer Allison the totally unexpected honour of beating him in three sets, he performed an unprecedented act of chivalry on American courts, writes a correspondent.

Tilden, it is true, kept in court against Cochet with a groggy knee, tasting his first reverse in the American championship for six years, but Tilden's disability, while less serious than Perry's was more obvious.

Remembering that Miss Suzanne Lenglen and Mrs. Helen Williams both withdrew at Forest Hills in the middle of a match owing to indisposition—the crowd audibly resenting their departure—the newspaper commentators are now handing bouquets to the British champion. He deserves all these tributes.

I have just come from Perry's hotel, where he was lunching with Miss Helen Vinson, his film star friend. He had been X-rayed and the result will be known to-morrow. The doctors think that when he fell on the court yesterday his racket slipped under his hip and the result was a slightly-bruised kidney. Ignorant of the exact damage, he went on playing, which strained certain back muscles. His strappings have now been removed to the patient's relief.

WINTER'S REST SUGGESTED

The doctors say he must certainly not play again for at least six weeks. The result of the X-ray will determine if a longer rest is necessary. A full winter's rest has been suggested, but it may not be essential.

Perry will leave for California at the week-end and will rest there and await developments. He is not due to leave for Australia before October 18. At one moment he considered abandoning his Australian trip and remaining in America. He has been inundated with messages of sympathy, an early

BETTER SERVICE

For "French Mail" Line

By the arrival of the M. M.
 liner Marechal Joffre here on Saturday the Messageries Maritimes (French Mail) have started the first step in an attempt to speed up their Far Eastern passenger and cargo service.

The vessel which was built for the Madagascar line was switched over on to the present schedule in order to accelerate this service.

The new ship is similar to the Felix Roussel, with which most Hong Kong people are already familiar, having the same squat, square funnels. She is slightly smaller than the Roussel, however, and is driven by internal combustion engines, instead of by electricity.

Her cabins, public rooms and spacious decks compare favourably with any other ship using the port of Hong Kong, and, although, for matters of convenience, she has kept to the same schedule as the other and older ships of the fleet, it is understood that she is very speedy.

 ful thanks the following donations

 Mrs. A. W. Hayward 1
 Further donations and/or offers of loans of cars are solicited and may be sent to (Mrs.) Lillian Urquhart through Mr. A. Urquhart, c/o Jardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd.
 At least another 12 cars are needed.

Later a sister ship, President
 Doumer, will also be sent to the East, and the two new vessels will maintain a fast passenger and freight service.

Among the passengers travelling on the new ship is M. Louis Fabre, the chief of police at the French Consulate in Shanghai, who is accompanied by his wife.

BERLIN SHARE MARKET

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily
 Press" (Copyright).)
 Berlin, Oct. 4.

Once again the share market is buoyant, business being brisk while prices are showing an upward trend. The chief buyers were the operators, the investing public still holding aloof, being still under the influence of the news about the world political situation.

The turnover in fixed interest securities was restricted but the prices in general were well maintained, state loans being firmer.

Call Money was quoted at 2 1/2 to
 3. Young Loan was unchanged at
 102. Reichsbank declined 1/2 to 171 1/2.
 Dye Trusts improved 1/2 to 148 1/2.
 Salzedt's Potash rose 1/2 to 182 1/2.
 German Steel Trusts advanced 1/2 to 79 1/2. German Mineral Oils were 1/2 firmer at 104.

SEVEN-YEAR PLAN

Improvement Of Railway

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily
 Press" (Copyright).)
 Hankow, Sept. 26.

It is learned from the Ministry of Railways that a seven-year plan for improvements in both the technical and financial aspects of the Peiping-Hankow Railway involving an expenditure of $22-000,000, has been approved.

On the technical side, attention will be paid to the renewal of decayed wooden sleepers, repair and rebuilding of bridges, installation of the latest mechanical devices, increase in the number of locomotives and rolling-stock and the modernization of the railway workshops.

On the business side, step will be taken for settlement of debts in arrears and amortization of existing loan obligations. Improvement of the budgetary system and the credit of the Railway Administration.

According to the estimates drawn up, 300,000 wooden sleepers on the entire line will be replaced; 70 sets of special steel crossings will be required for the sidings at railway stations. 5,500 tons of new steel rails will also be needed.

REPAIRING BRIDGES

Besides reconditioning the bridges at Sinloh and Fengchun, the Yellow River bridge near Chengchow, in northern Honan, will be re-built at a cost of $7,500,000.
 Engineering work is to be started early next year and will be completed within five years.

In addition to the purchase of 20 locomotives, the workshops at Hankow and Changshien, southwest of Peiping, will be expanded and modernized in order to meet the increasing demands for facilities to repair damaged engines and the manufacture of minor equipment and accessories.

With regard to the improvement of its finances, special emphasis will be laid on the readjustment of old debts and repayment in regular instalments; increase of revenue; and establishment of an efficient budget system.—
 China United Press (by mail).

£14,000,000 ELECTRIFIED LINE

Of the electrification system
 the new line between Florence, Rome and Naples is the most important stretch. This has meant, of course, new locomotives—capable of 100 m.p.h.—39,000 workers have been employed every day of the year, and the total cost has been $75,000,000 lire (£14,583,333).

In addition Fascism has contributed a new University to Rome and eleven new Post Offices of palatial magnificence to Italy, and is about to build a new Ministry for Foreign Affairs in the St. Paul's district of Rome.
